

John Howard - Of Counsel

John joined DUENSING in 2012. From 2005 to 2012, John was the Managing Partner Tilleke & Gibbins' Phuket office. John specializes in property and commercial matters. He draws on more than three decades of client representation experience in Asia-Pacific to provide superior client service in the areas of private investment acquisition, commercial law, and private client services, with a focus on leisure property destinations. He has been the practitioner of choice for numerous "high-end" property investors and developers.

John graduated from the University of Melbourne (Australia) and is a barrister and solicitor in Australia (1980), Kiribati (1983), the Marshall Islands (1984), Fiji (1989), and the Trust Territories of the Pacific Islands.

Nationality: Australian

Professional Qualifications / Memberships:

- Member of the Law Society of New South Wales, Australia
- Founding Member of the Pacific Legal Network
- NSW Real Estate Institute
- Barrister and Solicitor (NSW, Australia)

Practice Areas:

- Real Estate
- Commercial/Corporate
- Cross border transactions
- Private client services